"MARRY WHEN YOUNG"

Universal One-Reel Comedy

Featuring NEELY EDWARDS and
BERT ROACH

CAST

Ned ..... Neely Edwards
The Bride ..... Alice Howell
Valet ..... Bert Roach

NED and his bride have just left the church after having the knot tied and from among the collection of old shoes that are thrown at them Ned's valet finds a pair that fit him and tucks them under his coat. To all appearances and from all the loving words that she pours out to her new husband, Ned's bride promises to be one of the sweetest and most obedient brides the world has known. But they are no sooner settled in their new home than she begins, in no uncertain tones and actions, to show who is boss of the establishment.

Ned and his valet make the acquaintance of a couple of swell-looking flappers and date them up. Ned is certainly an optimist to believe that he will be able to get out to keep the date. With the help of his valet he almost succeeds, but a lack of co-operation spoils the whole show and Ned and his valet meet the girls, somewhat later than they had planned, in the emergency hospital, whence they had been sent after the bride finished mopping up the house with them. The girls happened to be nurses and were assigned to the poor boobs.
